JANUARY PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS AND CONFESSIONS: GOSHEN

Theme Scriptures:

- Psalms 27:5 (KJV) – “For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion: in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me; He shall set me up upon a rock.”
- Exodus 8:22-23 (KJV) – “And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth. And I will put a division between My people and thy people: tomorrow shall this sign be.”
- Isaiah 4:5-6 (KJV) – “And the Lord will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence. And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.”

What is Goshen?

The term "Goshen" holds deep spiritual significance for believers, particularly as it pertains to themes of divine protection, provision, and the presence of God amidst trials.

During the famine in Egypt, Goshen became a place of abundance for the Israelites. Genesis 47:27 says, "Thus Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen. And they gained possessions in it, and were fruitful and multiplied greatly."

Goshen was a visible sign of God's covenant with Israel. While Egypt faced darkness, famine, and destruction, the Israelites were spared. This distinction affirmed their identity as God's chosen people (Exodus 9:26, Exodus 10:23).

Goshen reminds us that we are not forsaken but are under the care of a faithful God who sustains and preserves His people for His glory.

FEBRUARY PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS AND CONFESSIONS: GREAT THINGS

Great and Mighty Things

The great things God reveals are transformative and often shift the trajectory of our lives. His revelations can bring clarity in confusion, peace in chaos, and direction when we feel lost. God does not do things in half measures, whatever He does, He makes it huge. We must resist putting a lid on Him and put Him in our 'small box' because He does great things.

Practical Steps to Experience 'Great Things'

Seek God Intentionally: Set aside dedicated time each day for prayer and reflection on His Word.

Listen Actively: Prayer isn't just about speaking; it's about listening to God through Scripture, circumstances, and His Spirit.

Obey Promptly: When God reveals His will, respond with obedience, knowing His plans are for your good (Jeremiah 29:11).

Trust Completely: Believe in God's ability to do far more than you could ask or imagine (Ephesians 3:20).

APRIL PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS AND CONFESSIONS: CROSSOVER

Theme Scriptures:

- Exodus 12:13 (KJV) – “And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.”
- Isaiah 43:2-4 (KJV) – “When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.”

The Protective Power of the Blood of Jesus

The blood of Jesus Christ is central to the Christian faith. It signifies redemption, protection, and victory. In Exodus 12:13, we find the institution of the Passover, where the blood of the lamb protected the Israelites from destruction. This Old Testament event foreshadowed the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus, the Lamb of God.

This month, let's claim the power in the blood of Jesus for protection in our lives—spiritually, emotionally, and even physically.

The blood of Jesus is not just a historical element of our faith; it is alive and active today. It protects, delivers, grants access to God, and secures our victory over the enemy. Let us live with confidence in the power of His blood, continually applying its truths in our lives

Theme Scriptures:

- Jeremiah 17:7-8 (KJV) – “Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.”
- Isaiah 61:3 (KJV)– “To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified.”

Flourishing Like a Palm Tree

The palm tree symbolizes resilience, fruitfulness, and triumph. Characteristics of the Palm Tree:

Resilience: Palm trees bend but don't break under pressure, symbolizing the strength of the righteous in trials. Isaiah 40:31: "They will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint."

Fruitfulness: Palms produce dates, a vital food source, symbolizing spiritual productivity in every season. John 15:8: "This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit."

Victory: Palms were used as symbols of triumph (John 12:13), representing the ultimate victory of those who walk with God.

Flourishing like the palm tree and the cedar is God's promise to the righteous who are planted in His house. When we root ourselves in God's presence, prioritize His Word, and align with His purpose, we experience spiritual growth, strength, and longevity.

JULY PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS AND CONFESSIONS: OVERTAKE

Theme Scripture: 1 Samuel 30:8 - "And David inquired of the Lord, 'Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?' 'Pursue them,' He answered. 'You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue.'"

Overtake- Catch-up

Life often brings us to places where we face loss, setback, and heartbreak. Like David at Ziklag, we may feel surrounded by ashes and despair. But the lesson in this scripture is clear: when we seek God's guidance, He not only gives us permission to move forward but also equips us with the power to overtake what seemed lost forever.

Practical Steps for Overtaking

Inquire of the Lord – Seek His guidance through prayer and scripture.

Pursue with Faith – Take actionable steps based on God's promises.

Expect Restoration – Trust that God's plan is to restore abundantly.

David's story reminds us that setbacks are not the end. The ashes of Ziklag became the backdrop for one of David's greatest victories. God's word to him—"Pursue, for you shall surely overtake"—is a promise for us today. Whatever loss or challenge you are facing, God invites you to trust Him, take action, and recover all. Will you step out in faith and pursue His promises?

- Deuteronomy 28:13– “The Lord will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the Lord your God and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.”

Journey to Higher Heights

Every believer is called to progress. God’s design for our lives is never stagnant. From the moment we surrender to Him, He begins to chart a course for upward movement—a journey toward "higher heights." Proverbs 4:18 describes this progression as a path of increasing brightness, while Deuteronomy 28:13 assures us of God's desire to elevate His children. This month, explore how you can step into the higher heights that God has planned for you, leaving mediocrity and complacency behind.

The journey to higher heights is not always easy. Challenges, delays, and setbacks are part of the process. However, God promises strength for the journey. Galatians 6:9 encourages us not to grow weary in doing good, for in due season we will reap if we don't give up.

- Surrender every area of your life to God, allowing Him to guide your steps.
- Take intentional actions this week to grow spiritually, whether it's spending more time in prayer, addressing areas of disobedience, or stepping out in faith.
- Trust that as you follow God's lead, He will take you to the higher heights He has promised.

Divine Turn Around in Difficult Situations

A divine turnaround is when God steps into a situation and transforms it completely, bringing restoration, healing, and victory. The Bible is full of examples where people encountered God in their lowest moments, and He turned their despair into hope, their mourning into joy, and their trials into testimonies. However, divine turnarounds are not random; they often occur when certain spiritual principles are activated.

Every story of divine turnaround in the Bible teaches us that no situation is too hopeless for God to change. However, divine turnarounds don't happen in a vacuum. They are often triggered by our faith, obedience, prayer, and repentance. Just as Joseph, Job, Hezekiah, and others experienced dramatic shifts, God is ready to intervene in your life.

Practical Factors That Trigger a Divine Turnaround:

1. Faithfulness: Trust and serve God diligently, even in adversity (Genesis 39:21-23).
2. Intercession: Praying for others invites God's blessings (Job 42:10).
3. Sincere Prayer: Earnest, heartfelt communication with God moves His hand (2 Kings 20:5).
4. Bold Faith and Action: Step out in faith, believing God can change your situation (Mark 5:34).
5. Repentance: Acknowledge your wrongs and return to God with humility (Luke 15:21).

DECEMBER PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS AND CONFESSIONS: GRATEFUL

Theme Scriptures:

- Hebrews 13:15 (KJV) – “By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to His name.”
- Luke 17:15-16 (KJV) – “And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.”
- Psalms 18:49 (KJV) – “Therefore will I give thanks unto Thee, O Lord, among the heathen, and sing praises unto Thy name.”

Gratitude

Gratitude is a transformative power that often gets overshadowed in our fast-paced lives.

In Luke 17:11-19, Jesus heals ten lepers, but only one returns to express his gratitude. This story is not just about healing but about the spiritual renewal that gratitude brings. This month let's focus on gratitude and explore its power in our lives and how it aligns us with God's purpose.

The Spiritual Danger of Ingratitude

1. Forgets the Giver: The nine who did not return were healed but missed the deeper blessing of a relationship with the Healer. Ingratitude blinds us to the source of our blessings.
2. Ingratitude Breeds Entitlement: When we fail to give thanks, we risk developing an attitude of entitlement, believing we deserve God's blessings rather than seeing them as gifts of grace.
3. A Hardened Heart: Ingratitude can lead to spiritual dullness, where we fail to see God's hand in our lives.

Daily Prophetic Confession

"I will continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, giving thanks to His name. My heart is filled with gratitude for His goodness and faithfulness. Like the one leper, I will always return to glorify God for His blessings in my life. I will declare His praises among the nations, and my lips will never cease to thank Him. As I give thanks, joy and peace overflow in my life, and the Lord multiplies His blessings upon me. I am grateful, and I will always sing of His greatness. Amen!"

"...by two immutable things...it was impossible for God to lie..." Heb. 6:18

God is a covenant keeper whose Word is unchanging and promises unwavering. Numbers 23:19 reminds us, "God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should change His mind."

From His covenant with Abraham to the new covenant through Jesus Christ, God has demonstrated His faithfulness across generations. Unlike human agreements that falter, His promises are sealed by His nature, which is perfect and trustworthy. When God speaks, His Word is eternal, and He fulfills His commitments without fail, providing assurance that we can trust Him in every circumstance.

Let's hold fast to His promises as we run through the year, no matter what comes along our way: the opposition, detours, challenges, ups and downs...

GOD CANNOT LIE!
